

Native American Butterfly Legend

According to the Native American Legend, the Great Spirit gathered the yellow and oranges of the warm Summer Sun, The blues of the water and sky, the greens of the meadows, and the colors of the flowers to make the beautiful butterflies.

When we whisper our wishes to a butterfly, the butterfly cannot reveal the wish to anyone but the Great Spirit who hears and sees all because the butterfly can make no sound. In gratitude for giving the beautiful butterfly its freedom, the Great Spirit always grants the wish. So according to legend, by making a wish and giving the butterfly its freedom, the wish will rise to the heavens and be granted.

So let us now wish this Couple a long life of Love, Laughter, Health, and Happiness and set these butterflies free in the trust that all of our wishes will be carried to the Great Spirit in the Sky to be granted.

Apache Marriage Blessing

Now you will feel no rain, for each of you shall shelter for the other.
Now you will feel no cold, for each of you shall be warmth for the Other.
Loneliness is no more.

For though you are two Persons, there is but one Life before You.
Hand in hand, go now to your dwelling place to enter into the days of your life together. And may the days you have, together be Good and Long upon the Earth.
